

Please keep the current internet neutrality rules. If these are repealed, big business and or the government will be able to censor our access. A freely accessible internet is necessary for modern free speech.